

Late February and early March 2020, Extension held four hemp production meetings across the state. We were fortunate to have the Shenandoah Valley meeting at James Madison University and to have those presentations recorded. These presentations provide a thorough overview of the latest information we have about hemp production - including information on production, marketing, processing and a good legal update from VDACS.

Educational Link: <https://ext.vt.edu/agriculture/hemp.html>

Also, you can find a new publication on “Integrated Pest Management of Hemp In Virginia” here: <https://www.pubs.ext.vt.edu/ENTO/ENTO-349/ENTO-349.html>.